Dear Drs. Radziwill and Benton,

With this letter, I would like to personally invite you to present your work—The 10 Principles: A New Paradigm for Collaboration and Innovation—at the upcoming 2014 IAJC/ISAM International Conference, to be held September 25-27, 2014, in Orlando, Florida, U.S.A.

As noted in a recent email to you, the IAJC Executive Board considered your professional credentials and is pleased to offer you this invitation to be noted speakers at the conference. The conference is sponsored by IAJC, ASEE, IEEE, the LEAN Institute, as well as many well-known universities and organizations, and 11 IAJC journals.

We are honored to have you at this prestigious conference.

Sincerely,

Dr. Philip D. Weinsier
